Lady-in-Waiting

The Lady-in-Waiting and guest speakers will share their knowledge on the following topics:

- Etiquette- This includes manners, conversational etiquette, table setting and dining etiquette.
- Interviews- Covers how to begin and end an interview, use of body language and vocabulary, how to demonstrate personality and professionalism.
- Speech and Public Speaking- This will be a discussion regarding how to conquer the fear of public speaking, how to conduct a speech and show personality through speaking.
- Appearance- The topic will consist of rodeo queen attire, hats, makeup and hair.

- Rodeo Knowledge- Includes getting to know the sport and etiquette of rodeo, how to study rodeo information and a game to test your skills!
- Horsemanship & Safety- This important topic will cover getting to know the horse and equipment used, posture, practicing patterns, equine science and safety.
- Modeling- Included here will be how to convey confidence while modeling on stage.
- Personal Safety- This covers self awareness and protection in public places.
- Social Media- This discussion addresses the appropriate use of social media, and how it affects your public and private life.

What to bring:

Western attire is most appropriate.

Each group (or girl if she does not currently hold a title) is to bring a small gift for each participant that represents her fair, rodeo or home town. For example, rodeo posters, pens, slicks, souvenirs or creative gifts are appropriate. Please bring 30 gifts to share.

Money (cash or check) for the clothing sale! Please contact Lyndsay if you want to sell lightly used western clothing.
